

Liability for own content: I am liable for my own content according to general laws, but not obligated to monitor external information, and illegal content will be removed once it's known.

Liability for external links: I am not responsible for the content on third-party websites I link to. This statement is valid for all external links, even those altered after I created the link.

Accuracy of content: That despite careful compilation, the accuracy, completeness, or timeliness of information on my site cannot be guaranteed.

Right to change content: I reserve the right to make changes or additions to the information provided without prior notice.